President’s Letter

I would like to extend to each of our members and the general public an invitation to join the officers, Board of Directors and members of the NAHC by attending our April 21st General Meeting at 8 AM in meeting rooms B&C of the Naperville Municipal Center.

During this month’s meeting we will be able to interact with the members of our City Council during their annual, informal visit with us. Both at the coffee and networking preceding the meeting, as well as within the meeting itself, they will discuss their impressions of City happenings as well as their goals for the rest of the administrative year. This may sound rather straight forward, BUT there is real meaning behind this meeting. To have this type of interaction that is not only personal, but totally dedicated to our residents and their concerns, is the unique value of these once-a-year sessions. You have read in my previous columns about how rare an opportunity for our community these informal get-togethers with our leaders are and how this can only occur in Naperville. As I’ve written before we do not take this privilege for granted.

The NAHC is honored to have so many Councilmen regularly attend our General Meetings as audience members. Many monthly meetings will have five or so attending and listening to our guest speakers and the presentations developed by the Confederation to help educate and inform our neighbors. For this upcoming meeting our council members will be front and center as our main topic, so please do attend.

Coffee, snacks, and networking begins at 8 AM and the meeting with Council starts at 8:30 AM, ending by 10 AM. Further details can be found on the Confederation webpage at www.napervillehomeowners.com. I look forward to the Council comments and your participation.

Sincerely,

Dr Bob Buckman
President, Naperville Area Homeowners Confederation

April Meeting with City Council

Mark your calendar for our next general membership meeting on Saturday, April 21st in lower level meeting rooms B&C of the Naperville Municipal Center. Coffee and Networking, sponsored by RE/MAX of Naperville, will begin at 8 AM with the formal meeting going from 8:30 until 10.

In addition to graciously sponsoring our pre-meeting refreshments, RE/MAX of Naperville recognizes that Spring is garage sale season. They will be bringing garage sale signs and will be happy to supply each subdivision with as many as they need!

Every year at our April meeting, members of the Naperville City Council take center stage and share their thoughts and insights with our membership. In addition to our interaction with Council, we will also be recognizing Chief Dial for his service to our City and neighborhoods.

Please keep an eye on our website for updates and further information on this meeting. We are looking forward to seeing you on the 21st!

Do We Have Your Updated Contact Information?

Last month we sent 2012 Dues Invoices to our members, and, for the first time, used email and not “snail mail.” If you did not receive a dues invoice, please email us at nahc-naperhomeowners@wowway.com and we’ll make sure one is sent your way.

When doing the mailing, we were concerned with the number of emails that bounced back due to bad addresses. With members moving, changing jobs, or switching to different Internet providers, our directory is in need of an update. If you believe the contact information for your association is out of date, please go to our website, www.napervillehomeowners.com and download and fill out an information sheet (new member application) on your association. There is a “hotlink” on our homepage to the Membership Application document.

Remember – the only way the Police, Fire Department, Park District, or even local realtors can get information on Naperville Associations is to ask the Confederation, We don’t provide this information except on request, so privacy should not be an issue.

Thanks!

Zoning and Land Use Update

Thom Higgins, the chair of the Confederation Zoning & Land Use Committee, writes every month about new development and land use projects discussed at his monthly meetings with City Staff, that are of interest to Naperville area residents, and/or under consideration by Plan Commission and City Council. He also includes information obtained from other sources.

New Projects:

Water Street Development: The developers have submitted revised plans for the Water Street Development. The office component on the Tower Building situated on the south side of Water St. will be replaced with a 130 room Holliday Inn Express hotel. On the north side of Water, the new plan replaces the previously approved 30 condos with 60 rental apartments. A January press release also indicated that Bien Trucha restaurant has agreed to lease 2,769 square feet in, we are assuming, one of the buildings on the north side of Water St, along the Riverwalk.

The Hotel and apartment changes are significant enough to require the project review and approval process to start over, with appearances in front of the Planning and Zoning Commission and then City Council. As part of this process, the City anticipates hiring a consultant to review the current TIF documents and update them with new potential assessment figures based on these revised uses.

Main Street Promenade, Van Buren and Main: The owner of Main Street Promenade will appear in front of City Council on April 3rd. to discuss a development agreement between themselves and the City. They are planning an addition to the existing structure that would run along the west side of Main to Benton where a vacant lot currently stands. In addition, they are planning on building a companion structure on the east side of main, the site of the defunct Naper Main project. All new structures will share the design features of the original Main Street Promenade, although the east side will be taller with an additional floor.

Of significance is the developer's request to place a pedestrian walkway across Main St. at mid-block between Van Buren and Benton (pictured is the proposal for the southeast corner of Main and Benton with the pedestrian bridge depicted on the right). If approved, this potentially marks the second elevated walkway in the downtown with the first being the walkway approved across Water St. connecting the hotel building to the residences along the river. Naperville currently has no regulations regarding elevated walkways, so it is questionable whether the city can block or regulate the construction of one.

Silverado Senior Living, Brookdale and Bond: The proposal is for a 90 bed Alzheimer/memory residential facility to be constructed on a vacant lot. The proposal requires a Conditional Use and will be appearing in front of the Planning and Zoning Commission on April 4th.

<http://www.silveradosenior.com/>

Dialysis Clinic, Washington near Naper: Plans have been submitted for a dialysis clinic to go into a vacant commercial structure on Washington. The use will require some minor changes to the PUD and therefore will appear in front of the Planning and Zoning Commission shortly.

6 local McDonalds Restaurants: Have submitted plans to add a second drive-thru lane at their facilities. In addition, staff continues to review the plans submitted for a new restaurant at Hillside and Washington (old Citgo station), with an appearance in front of the Planning and Zoning Commission expected in late April or May.

Q Barbecue, Main and Van Buren: A new casual dining restaurant will be going into the old Jilly's.

<http://www.q-bbq.com/>

First Community Bank, Washington and Gartner: First Community will be moving into the old "Play lit Again Sports" building. They will be adding a drive-thru which will probably require an appearance in front of the Planning and Zoning Commission. Date TBD.

Ongoing Proposals:

Naperville Fertility Clinic, Benton and Washington: Appeared in front of City Council on April 20th. Approximately 15 speakers spoke against the proposal, all but one doing so on moral and religious grounds. Counsel for the petitioner made it clear that the proposed use is allowed under the applicable zoning code and their appearance was for minor compliance/variance issues only. Specifically, they are looking to not provide parking on site, but rather pay approximately $154,000 into the parking SSA. They are also looking for minor setback variances and sign variances. Councilman Grant Wherli asked staff for additional documentation regarding the Certificate of Need issued by the controlling State agency. Accordingly the public hearing was continued to April 3rd.

Mariott Hotel, Naperville Blvd. and Diehl: The remodeled hotel is slated to open April 2nd.

Ongoing Studies:

Building Code Update: Staff continues to work with the Building Review Board on the proposed changes. Of note is the discussion of adopting the fire suppression section of the International code for new construction. If adopted, all new homes constructed in Naperville would be required to have sprinkler systems. There is also discussion of requiring more extensive use of arc-fault circuit breakers in new construction. Final draft is expected to be presented to City Council in April, with public comment taken in May and June.

Bus Depot Feasibility Study: On March 3, the Transportation Advisory Board considered the Naperville Metra Station Bus Depot and Commuter Access Feasibility Study recommendations and approved the following:

- Recommend approval of a bus depot on the Parkview Lot (Not Approved, 2-6).
- Recommend approval of conversion of North Avenue (currently one-way westbound only) to a two-way street between Washington Street and Ellsworth Street (Approved, 5-3)
- Recommend approval of modifications to the Eastern Burlington Lot (Approved, 8-0).
- Recommend approval of the short-term recommendation for the south side of the train tracks, excluding conversion of North Avenue to two-way traffic between Washington Street and Ellsworth Street (Approved, 8-0).

<http://www.naperville.il.us/busdepotfeasibility.aspx>

Staff is recommending the conversion of the Parkview lot into a bus depot and the conversion of North Ave. into a two-way street for access. Although TAB voted down Staff's recommendation to construct a bus depot in the Parkview lot, City Council will receive the same recommendation when they take up the matter. This is tentatively scheduled for April 17th.

The Naperville Police Department has received multiple reports of citizens being scammed out of money. In both instances, the elderly victims were led to believe a loved one was in some sort of legal trouble and needed money wired to them right away.

The victims felt the people with whom they spoke were either relatives or knew information only their relative would be aware of. Through investigations of the reported scams the Naperville Police Department has learned the offenders often glean information from victims by posing leading statements where the victims themselves provide information unknowingly to the offenders.

Some suggestions offered by the police department to avoid becoming a victim of fraud are:

- Never wire or otherwise send money anywhere unless you are absolutely sure who you are sending it to.
- Be leery of people who make statements where you in turn provide information, such as, "grandma it's me" and you respond with a name.
- Use contact numbers you have to call back the person purporting to be a relative or friend.
- Check with other relatives first before committing to any sort of assistance.
- If you don't have relatives or friends to contact, call the police.

For additional information on scams visit your local police department or visit www.ftc.gov/bcp/workshops/moneytransfer or www.illinois.gov

The Conservation Foundation 2012 Earth Day Benefit Dinner will be held on April 19th, 5:30 to 9pm at Bobak's Signature Events in Woodridge, Illinois. This is the Foundation's largest fundraiser of the year, and this year's dinner will celebrate the organization's 40th Anniversary of saving land and rivers in northeastern Illinois. The evening will include exquisite dining, a silent auction, cash raffle, inspiring video and the opportunity to ensure the preservation of local natural areas and waterways for future generations through a financial contribution.

The organization is seeking table sponsorships and donations to their nature-inspired silent auction. Tables are sold at the $1,500 (Silver), $2,500 (Gold) and $5,000 (Platinum) level and include a table for eight at the dinner, recognition at the event, in the media and on the organization's website. Desired silent auction items include trips, outdoor sporting equipment such as kayaks, fishing equipment, etc., restaurant, spa and golf certificates, artwork, native plant material, garden art, and high end electronics. Auction donors will be recognized at the event, on the organization's website, and can claim a charitable donation for their contribution.

The dinner's nature-inspired silent auction, one of the best in the area, will feature more than 200 items donated by Foundation members and local businesses and artists, and will also use the innovative BidPal Electronic Auction System. Upon arrival, guests will be handed an electronic device they will use throughout the evening to bid on auction items, play the Wall of Wine and purchase tickets for the cash raffle. The BidPal system eliminates paper bid sheets, allows guests to bid from anywhere in the room, alerts bidders when they have been outbid, and provides an easy mechanism to make general donations to The Conservation Foundation. BidPal also offers ad space for local businesses wishing to get their information in front of a targeted audience in a charitable state of mind. Ad space on the BidPal device is being offered at $200 (table sponsors and silent auction donors receive a reduced price for ad purchases.)

Those interested in sponsoring a table, donating an auction item or purchasing a BidPal ad should contact Chere Hayes at 630-428-4500, Ext. 17 or email chayes@theconservationfoundation.org.

Flood Safety Awareness

Each year, floods account for billions of dollars in property losses in the United States. In 2011, Midwest floods caused more than 1.5 billion dollars of damage according to Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) regional flood statistics. Whether from a storm, water main break or a sewer backup, floods threaten homes and businesses. You should be aware of flood hazards regardless of where you live and work because flooding can happen anytime, anywhere and without warning.

Flood damages are not normally covered under a standard homeowner's insurance policy. Just a few inches of water from a flood can cause tens of thousands of dollars in damage.

Residential claims data reported by the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) indicate that the average flood insurance claim paid was nearly $34,000 over a five year period. Flood insurance is the best way to protect you from devastating financial loss.

In the Midwest, spring weather comes with the likelihood of heavy rains and severe weather. Take actions to protect yourself and your family, business and finances before a flood event occurs. The following preparedness tips are reprinted from www.ready.gov site

Spring Flooding: Risks and Protection posted on /Spring_Flood_Fact_Sheet.pdf. Read below to learn steps you can take before, during and after a flood to protect you and your family.

Before a Flood:

- Build an emergency kit and create a family communications plan.
- Practice your family emergency plan. Plan and practice flood evacuation routes from home, work, and school that are on higher ground.
- Conduct a thorough home inventory. Thorough documentation of your belongings will help you file your flood insurance claim.

During a Flood:

- Go to higher ground. Get out of areas subject to flooding, including dips, low spots, washes, etc.
- Avoid areas already flooded, especially when water flows fast. Do not attempt to cross flowing streams. Just six inches of moving water can knock you off your feet.
- Never drive through flooded roadways. Roadbeds may be washed out under flood waters and just two feet of moving water can sweep a SUV off the road.

After a Flood:

- Check for damage. Check for structural damage before re-entering your home. If you suspect damage to water, gas, electric or sewer lines, contact authorities.
- Remove wet contents immediately. Wet carpeting, furniture, bedding and any other items holding moisture can develop mold within 24 to 48 hours. Clean and disinfect everything touched by floodwaters.
- File your flood insurance claim. Be sure to take photos of any water in the house and damaged personal property. Make a detailed list of all damaged or lost items.

To learn how to create an emergency kit, family communications plan and emergency plan, consider attending an emergency preparedness class. Classes meet from 7 to 8:30 p.m. on the second Tuesday of each month at the Alfred Rubin Riverwalk Community Center (ARRCC) located at 305 West Jackson Ave., Room 206. You can contact the Emergency Preparedness Education Team at (630) 305-7000, ext. 570 or email beready@Naperccc.org to reserve space for one of the monthly classes. Naper Settlement offers special events, such as Civil War Days and All Hallows Eve, programs, classes, camps, architectural walks, group tours and school programs, and rental opportunities for meetings, weddings, parties and other social occasions. For Summer Season begins April 1

Naper Settlement, located at 523 S. Webster St. in Naperville, begins its Summer Season April 1. Hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday and from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, through Oct. 31. The Naperville Heritage Society and Naper Settlement received a Sustainable Development Award from The Conservation Foundation at its winter membership and awards luncheon held Feb. 8. The award was given for Naper Settlement's Roadways and Stormwater Management Project, completed in 2011, in which 42,000 square feet of asphalt pathways and parking was replaced with environmentally-friendly permeable, interlocking concrete pavers. Other best management practices included eight rain gardens, seven infiltration zones, two cisterns, a bioswale and a rain barrel.

Through the use of permeable pavers, under which a substantial sub-base of gravel lies, stormwater is slowed from entering the city sewer system and impurities filtered out, helping to improve the water quality in the DuPage River Watershed. The project also addressed ongoing stormwater and flooding issues that have affected the site, its historic buildings and surrounding neighborhood.

The public is invited to see the new interior roads and how they will help improve the DuPage River watershed during an Earth Day Celebration from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on April 21 and from 1 to 4 p.m. on April 22. Take a guided tour at 2 p.m. of the new rain gardens to discover how to design and select plants for this beneficial kind of garden. There will be a variety of activity stations including making a Soil Sammy, Garden in a Glove and Dissect a Seed; pumping water from an old-fashioned pump connected to the cisterns; and watching demonstrations that share the science behind the stormwater improvements. All activities are included with admission; Naperville residents are free.

Help the NAHC Achieve Its Mission

The NAHC is looking for more Associate Directors to help us interact with our neighbors. If you have an interest in a local governmental (i.e. tax dollar supported) entity or other quasi-governmental organization, we need liaisons to report back to the Confederation Board on developments and directions from these organizations and how these may impact our neighborhoods.

We are also looking for an Associate Director willing to help with the NAHC publicity duties, including communicating news of our meetings to area news outlets, assisting with the web site, www.napervillehomeowners.com and helping prepare this newsletter.

If you are interested, please drop us an email at nahc-naperhomeowners@wowway.com or speak to President Dr. Bob Buckman or Vice President Bob Fischer for more details

March Meeting Provided Sustainability Information

If you missed our March General meeting at Naper Settlement, you also missed out on some great information and tips for landscaping and maintenance around your home and association. After the meeting, Jay Womack of WRD Environmental, provided these Top Ten items Naperville residents can do to be more 'green'

1. Install a rain barrel, or two. Use the water for garden and/or indoor plants.
2. Install a rain garden below a minimum of two downspouts at your home.
3. Replace a bit of lawn with native plants. And then replace a bit more lawn with native plants...
4. Sit outside and listen to the wind with someone you love.
5. Replace incandescent light bulbs with either compact fluorescent light bulbs or LED bulbs.
6. Recycle, recycle, recycle
7. Try to use large appliances - washer/dryer, dishwasher, air conditioner, during non-peak times of the day.
8. Purchase all the food for one meal, once a week, entirely from locally grown products.
9. Walk, ride a bicycle, or take public transportation one time on the weekend to run an errand.
10. Read the following books – The Nature Principle; Animal, Vegetable, Miracle; Omnivores Dilema; Water; Naturalist.

Presentations from the meeting have been posted on the Confederation website at www.napervillehomeowners.com.

Jay also shared that traditional landscape design practices throughout urban and suburban America are characterized by large expanses of grass lawn, ornamental shrubs, flowers, ground cover, and a wide variety of trees, most of which are non-native to this area. This landscape development approach generally results in the necessity of frequent lawn watering and mowing, and the liberal application of chemical fertilizers, pesticides and herbicides, many of which are potentially hazardous to the environment.

For those interested in environmentally-friendly gardening practices, native plants offer a solution that can be more visually attractive, easier to maintain, environmentally sensitive, requires less water, attracts numerous types of wildlife, and begins to restore a legacy of plants that once blanketed the Midwest. To understand which plants are best suited for your situation, The Conservation Foundation is a great resource; their Conservation at Home Program offers on-site help to determine the best solution for your needs. Check out their webpage at: <http://www.theconservationfoundation.org/what-we-do/conservationhome/native-plants.html>.

The Naperville Park District and The Conservation Foundation are collaborating again this year to offer rain barrels for sale at a discounted price through April 11, 2012.

Rain barrels are simply large containers that capture rainwater at the end of a downspout and store the water for later use, for example in watering plants or washing cars. Using water from rain barrels lowers water bills, helps reduce flooding, and can have a dramatic impact on water quality in our rivers and streams.

In response to requests from the community, the Naperville Park District and The Conservation Foundation are offering two free, identical training sessions demonstrating how to install and use a rain barrel. The first session takes place from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Wed., April 11 and the second session is from 8:00 to 9:00 a.m. on Sat., April 21. Both sessions will be held at Seager Park, located at 1163 Plank Road in Naperville. Attendees are asked to register in advance through the Naperville Park District at www.napervilleparks.org or by calling 630-848-5000.

The 55-gallon rain barrels will be sold for $70 each and may be purchased online at www.napervilleparks.org, by phone at 630-848-5000 or in person at the Park District Administration Building at 320 W. Jackson Ave.

The barrels will be available for pick up at the Naperville Park District South Maintenance Facility at 3415 Book Road on Saturday, April 14 from 8:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon.

The rain barrels are made from reused plastic and come equipped with a spigot, a screw off lid, a garden hose threaded overflow, and screen in the top to help keep out bugs and debris. For more information about the benefits of rain barrels visit www.theconservationfoundation.org. Over the past five years, The Conservation Foundation has sold more than 7,000 rain barrels.

The Naperville Park District invites the community to celebrate the grand reopening of Knoch Park on Saturday, April 7 at 9:30 a.m. at Knoch Park Field #5 (formerly known as Field #8) on West St., just south of Martin Ave., adjacent to the new playground.

The ceremony will begin at 9:30 a.m., followed by the first pitch for Little League's opening game of their 60th anniversary season. The V. F. W. Cardinals (home), coached by Paul Spitz, will face the Naperville Baseball Academy Cubs (away), coached by Troy Jackson. The public is invited to attend the ceremony and cheer on their favorite team. The first 100 attendees will receive free Crackerjacks.

The event is celebrating the completion of extensive park improvements in the south section of Knoch Park that began in the summer of 2011. The project included renovating the ball fields and installing a loop trail, a new restroom building, a new playground, and a picnic shelter. The project was funded, in part, by an Open Space Lands Acquisition and Development (OSLAD) grant from the Illinois Department of Natural Resources. Additional funding was provided by a grant from the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and the Governor of Illinois through Section 319 of the Clean Water Act. This grant supported the installation of a 10,000 gallon underground cistern that stores rainwater for re-use in irrigating the ball fields.

Knoch Park, home of Naperville's Ribfest, is one of the Park District's busiest parks, hosting tennis, baseball, softball, and football games and providing open space for the public and for Naperville Central High School student activities. The new playground, multi-use trail, and picnic shelter will give park visitors more opportunities to enjoy the outdoors, whether they are there to watch a ball game or just to explore the park.
